PERSONAL STATEMENT OF SALVATION AND CALL TO MINISTRY

Although I was born in Louisiana, I was raised in northeast Georgia from the age of 4. Until the age of 17, I actively attended a prosperity-gospel preaching church and volunteered in all sorts of ministries from middle school throughout high school. I assumed I was a Christian because of my extensive attendance and involvement in church. Through tragic circumstances, the Lord began leading me to himself. After my mother passed away in 2009, a year and a half later my deep depression began to slowly lift through a group of friends who challenged my faith, and, by consequence, sent me to the Bible and to prayer. During the summer of 2011, God used a John Piper sermon jam introduced to me through this same group of friends to finally give life to my dead soul. That summer ignited a sincere happiness in Jesus and whet my appetite for the glorious, massive, beautiful God revealed in Jesus Christ through the Spirit as revealed through his Word. I actually wanted Jesus for the first time in my life simply because of who he is. I began to love the Bible and go to it for the first time on my own. I desired holiness. I desired to share the gospel because God had given me so much through it. I attended Bethlehem College because I loved the Bible and the altogether lovely God revealed in it. Consequently, I attended seminary for the same reasons, and developed a sincere longing and desire to shepherd the church by result.

MINISTRY STATEMENT

I love spreading a passion for the beauty of God in all things for the joy of all peoples in Jesus Christ through the Spirit. I want to gladly spend myself shepherding a community of believers and unbelievers to grow into the knowledge and love of God through the vibrant fellowship of the local church. I desire this community to cherish God in Christ as their highest treasure and dearest Father by building one another up in acts of kindness, loving the broken, oppressed, and marginalized, and exhorting one another in the gospel of truth lest their hearts be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. I hope, by God's grace, to guard the flock from sheep-devouring wolves by giving myself up for them. I desire to be gently bold, meekly courageous, and winsomely vigilant for the purity of the church over whom Christ has set me overseer, the church for whom Christ himself died that she might be for him pure and holy, adorned with the beauties of righteousness and made exceedingly lovely by the holiness of her good works. I hope to be an example to the flock: may the brightness of my knowledge of God glow with the warmth of love for the neighbors next door and the nations overseas.

DOCTRINAL BELIEF

I believe in the one triune God who is infinitely happy in himself, who subsists plurally as Father, Son, and Spirit. I believe that in eternity past the Father compacted with the Son to purchase the fullness of the Spirit for his people. I believe that mankind fell from the original, unfallen state in which he was created, and that mankind is totally tainted with sin, such that no part of man is free from indwelling sin. I believe that God has infallibly spoken through his inerrant Word. I believe the Son died to save his bride, the church, who becomes a creature of the word through life in the gospel. I believe the Father and the Son sent the Spirit to comfort and empower the church in her mission to spread God's glory to the ends of the earth through the evangelism and discipleship of the nations. I believe that salvation is only by grace through faith, and is for anyone who believes in Christ and turns from his or her sins. I believe the church consists of all those who have believed in Christ and turned from their sins, and that baptism and the Lord's supper are ordinances to nourish the believer. I believe that the Son is coming again to judge the wicked and reward the righteous. I believe that he will establish a new heavens and new earth where he will dwell with his people forever in ever-increasing happiness in God.
